

SITE 12: BECKENHAM PLACE PARK

EXISTING SITE

PROPOSED MATERIALS

PAVING

Self-binding Breendon gravel

WALLS & FENCES

Entrance gates and fencing - timber

Handrails along control structure

STRUCTURES

Timber bridges

Timber boardwalk

Grasscrete embankment

Geotextile bank reinforcement mesh

Timber clad kiosk to EA specification

Brick wing walls

Brick steps at control structure

Access steps to stream for maintenance

Brushed concrete channel with dropped central section

Eel Tiles

Fish passage ?

FURNITURE

Bench - Bespoke timber to match HLF scheme

Timber bollards (prevent vehicle access at control structure)

Adventure play equipment: 10 no. timber play elements

Informal adventure play: tree stumps, trunks, logs, etc.

Park signage

Lighting ?

TREES

Woodland planting on north and west:

Oak

Ash

UNDERSTORY PLANTING

Riparian

Native hedgerow

Woodland edge (minor trees and shrubs)

Stag beetle habitat (brush piles)

Ornamental mixed shrubs

Perennial border

SEEDING

Meadow grassland

Wildflower meadow

Amenity lawn

Wet grassland meadow species

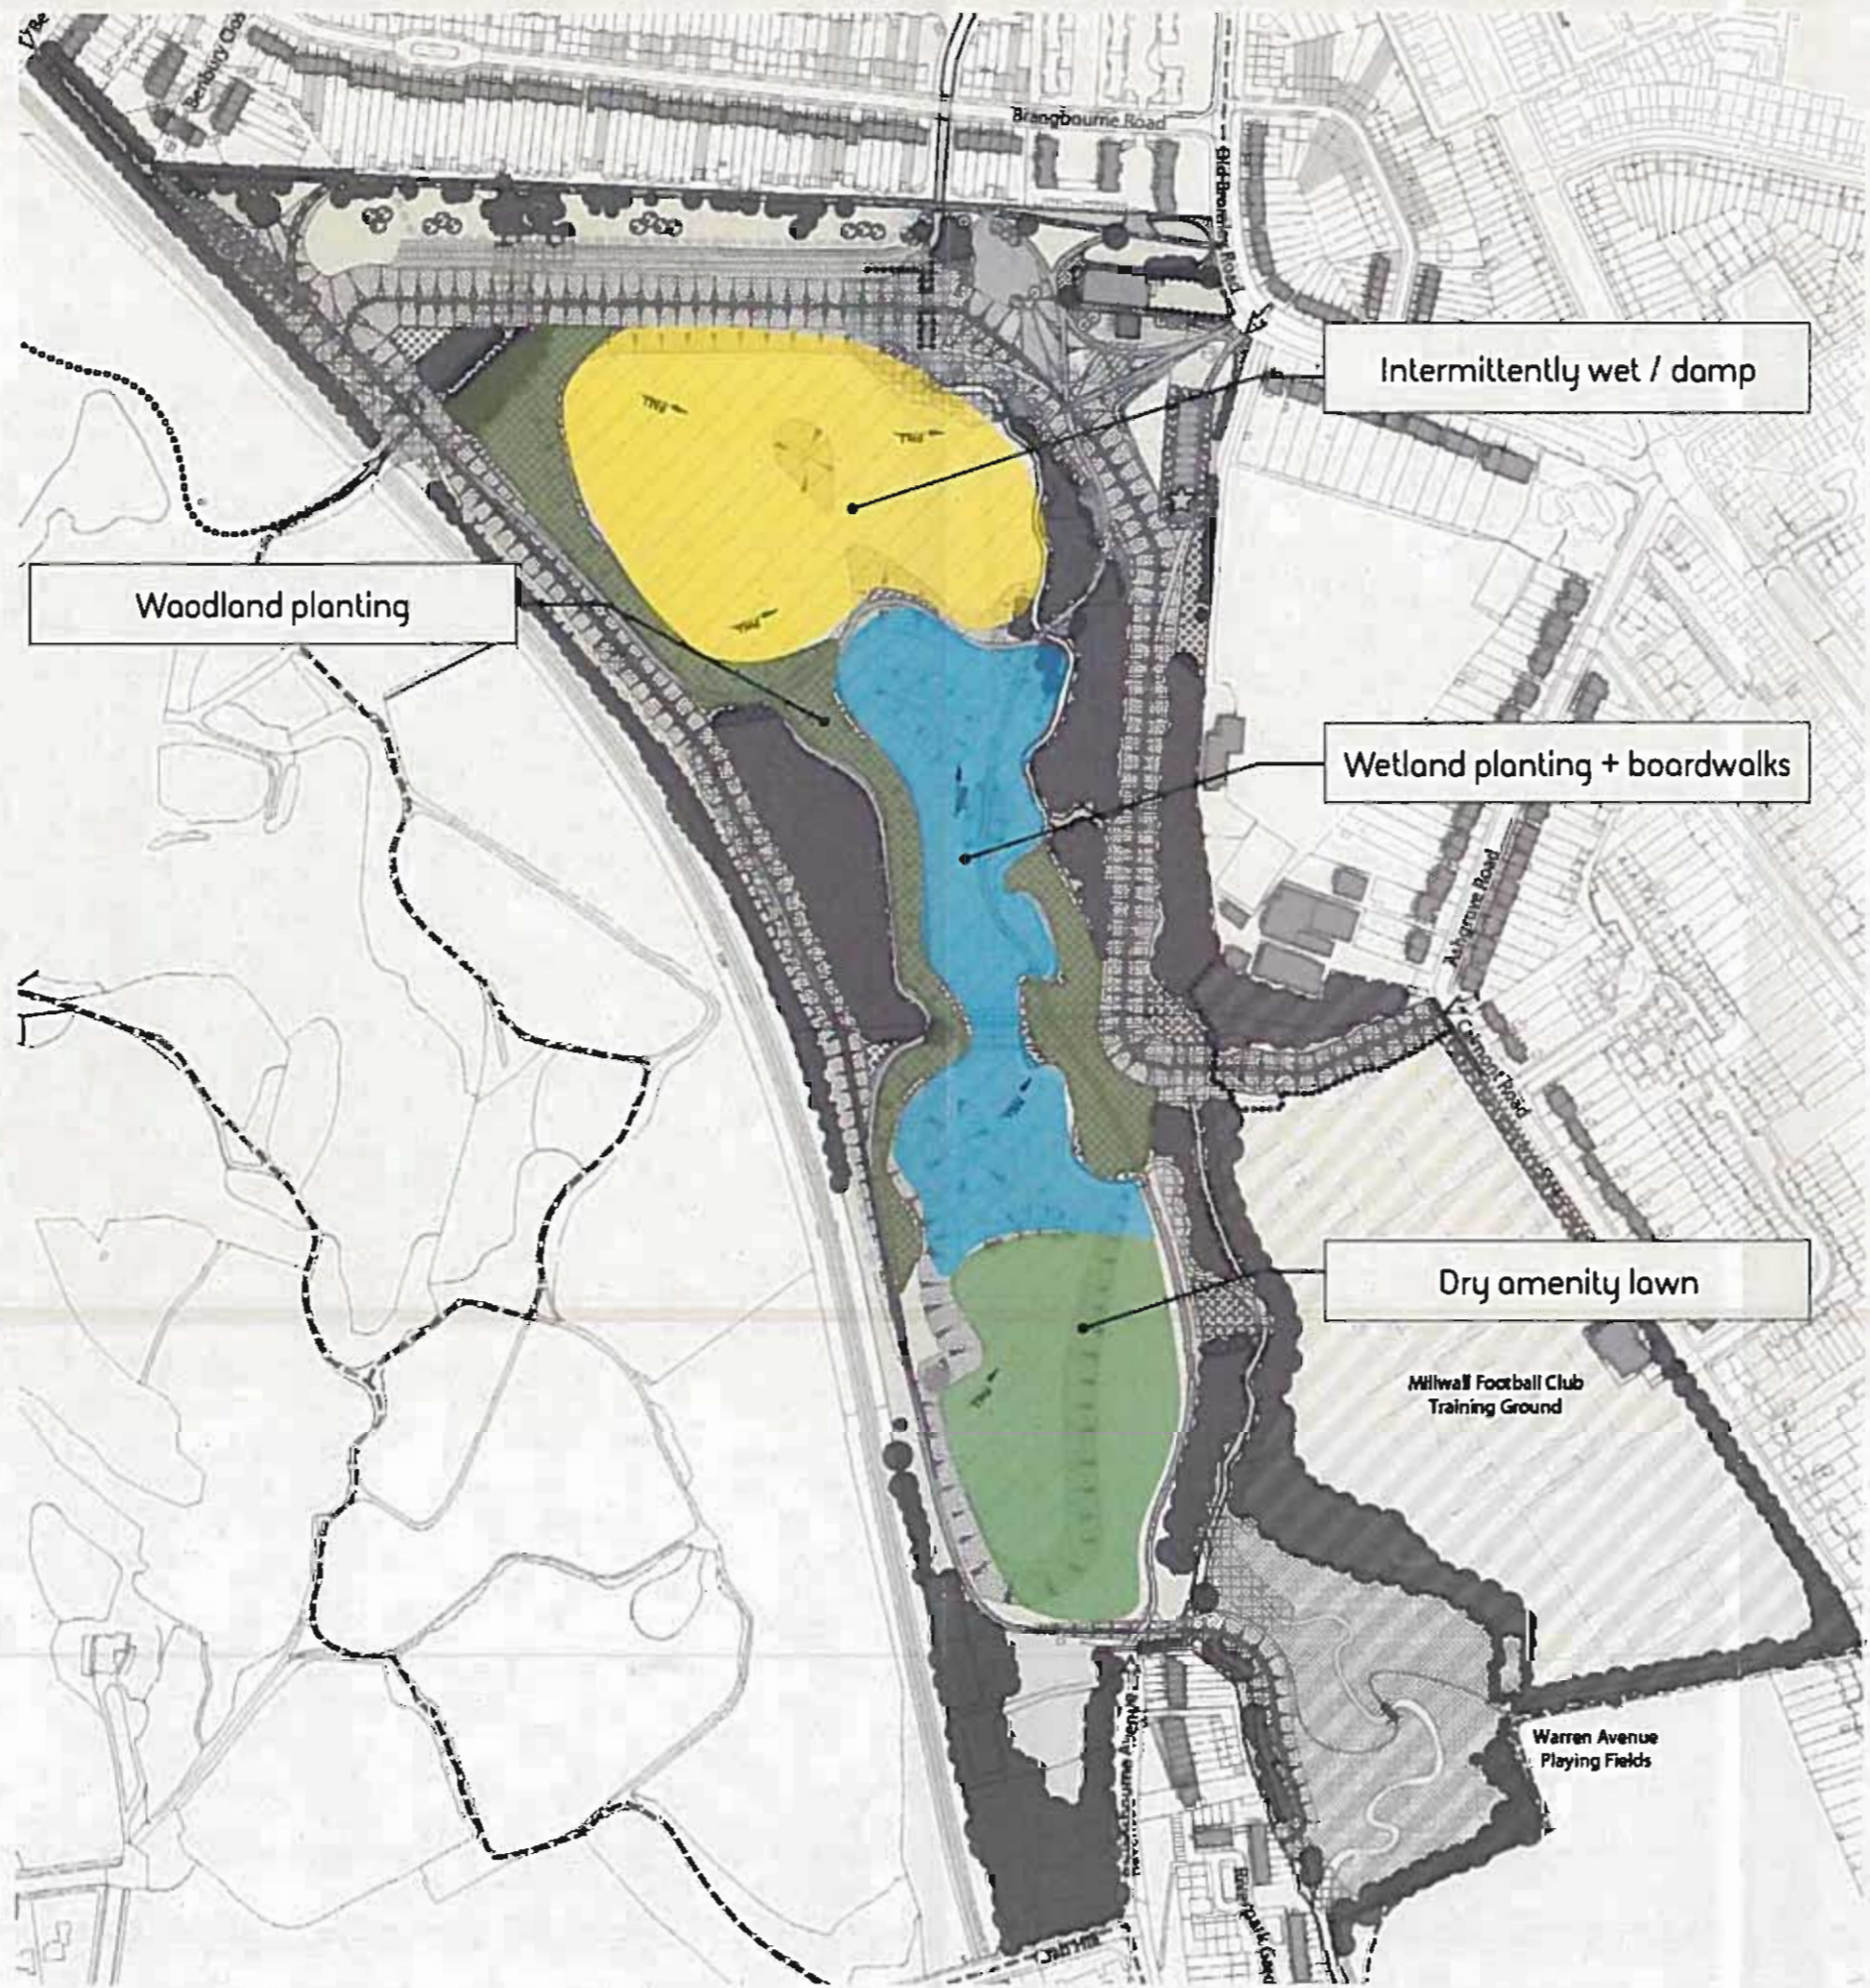

IN STREAM PLANTING

Low flow channel

Reed beds (plug planting)

Reinstated tree root systems for habitat creation

Gravel deposits

Woodland planting

Intermittently wet / damp

Wetland planting + boardwalks

Dry amenity lawn

Millwall Football Club
Training Ground

Warren Avenue
Playing Fields

Brangbourne Road

St. Brangbourne Road

Aylmer Road

Cannon Road

Warren Avenue

St. Brangbourne Road

Grasscrete slope

Geotextile mesh reinforced slope

Reinstated tree roots + gravel bank deposits for habitat creation

Control structure elements

Self-binding Breedon gravel path

Bespoke timber bench to match HLF scheme

Timber footbridge

Adventure play equipment incorporated into landforms

Informal natural play elements

Stog beetle habitat: brush piles

Wetland grasses with timber boardwalk

Self-binding Breedon gravel path

Wetland grasses with timber boardwalk

Informal kickabout area on amenity lawn

Reinstated tree roots + gravel bank deposits for habitat creation

Stag beetle habitat: brush piles

Timber entrance gates + fencing

Bespoke timber bench to match HLF scheme

Old Bromley Road entrance

